

PROVERBS 17

If you could have everything your heart desires, would your relationship with God be better or worse?

vss 1-4

How do you deal with conflict, unresolved issues, difficult people, etc.?

How does God test our hearts? See James 1:2-4, I Peter 1:6-9

vss 5-8

What are your hopes/ dreams for your children and grandchildren?

Explain verse 8 – HINT: present = bribe

vss 9-12

How is a transgression covered?

When we keep bringing something up; have we truly forgiven?

vss 13-16

How do we stop contention before it starts?

How do we guard against justifying the wicked and condemning the just?

vss 17-20

Name a good friend you can count on in adversity:

What kind of person loves strife?

vss 21-24

How do we go from a broken spirit to a merry heart? consider Psalm 93

How do the foolish look for wisdom?

vss 25-28

Rewrite verses 27 and 28 in your own words: